Yeah, give me just a few, is it still request 2899 that needs to be moved?

It was approved but needed to be denied. Can you move it back to pending queue?

Actually it should be denied.

Yeah I can make it to where it is approved. I will be in the office around 11 and I will take care of it as soon as I get there.

Randy,

Is there a way to change an approval to a denial? Julie accidentally approved a request that should be denied or can you move it back to the pending queue so we can deny?

Note: Resending to your OMES email address.

Thanks
